Section 1: Reading Notes. The first required section of your history journal will be the notes you take from our assigned readings. Reading notes are a required part of your grade in the class. More importantly, reading is the best way for you to learn the basic content of a history course. You must read in this class in order to do well. I cannot possibly cover all the content that you need in lecture – and no one, especially not me, wants me to try!

Description. Like its popular predecessor, the second edition of The United States: A Brief History is a basic, readable, and affordable core text for the introductory survey of United States history. The book is not intended as the only resource for students in such courses: its length, approach, and price encourage the use of supplementary books, research projects, and primary documents (many of which are now available on the Internet).
